

The University of Baltimore has partnered with Towson University to offer a wonderful veteran's celebration on Saturday Nov 5th. Starting at 10:30am, there will be a special, veteran and military connected tailgate party prior to the 2:00pm game between Towson University and Villanova.

For only $5 you will get:

- Lunch from Mission BBQ
- Tickets to the game
- Unlimited soda and water
- Three beer or wine drink vouchers
- Access to the premier, veteran community only, tailgating area right outside the stadium
- Chance to converse with a number of Veteran Service Organization representatives
- Recognition during the game
- Specialty giveaways, music, corn hole and so much more!

*Children under the age of 12 are free

Bring the whole family to enjoy a wonderful day celebrating and connecting with the veteran communities from Towson University, The University of Baltimore, and our community partners.

All proceeds from these "tickets" will go to the University of Baltimore and Towson University student veteran groups.

The tailgate will be at Lot D of Johnny Unitas Stadium, though there will not be individual parking there. Parking is free at the Union Garage. (Towson.edu/maps. for more info.) Short walk to the stadium from there. Follow the crowd to the game.
