

DISCOVER

★ The stories of our hometown heroes. WWI & WWII—from Cantigny to Okinawa. 15 October 1918— the deadliest day. The Postman and Parker’s Crossroads, The Tarawa Observer, a few of their stories.

★ The heartache of war. A mother never allowed to mourn her firstborn son. The H.M.S. Otranto and the Private who never found a home. The Bombardier and the love he left behind.

★ How unknown burial sites are found. The stories of the men time forgot. How we unravel and solve decades, sometimes centuries old family mysteries.

Join us

On

8 August 2023

From

6:30 p.m.—8:30 p.m.

At

Michael E Busch Annapolis Library

Campbell-Chambliss Community

Meeting Room

140 West Street, Annapolis 21401

Learn

How you can become a part of

To RSVP or for more information contact

Denise@thelegacyofhonor.com

443-510-9330

HONOR

★ Our fallen by volunteering for one of our ongoing and/or upcoming projects

★ Learn about-

Profiles of Heroes

Gold Star Family Trees

Faces of Honor

Adopt a Grave

MIA/POW Day

Gold Star Mothers Weekend

Poppies—105th Anniversary WWI

Gold Star Christmas Trees

Memorial Day 2024

80th Anniversary of Normandy

Thank you, Margraten

★ Volunteer from home or join us for a group event. Find a project that is right for you and/or your family.

“They shall grow not old,
As we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them,
Nor years condemn.
We will remember them.”

Laurence Binyon