

Maryland's
Commitment to Veterans

Love, Healing and Resilience: Behavioral Health Approaches After War

IN-PERSON SCREENING EVENT

Join us for an engaging in-person screening event exploring behavioral health approaches to supporting veterans and their partners in navigating intimacy barriers after combat-related injuries.

Learn how love, healing and resilience play crucial roles in the recovery process. Afterward, take the opportunity to connect virtually with Film Director, Dr. Mitchell Tepper for Q&A.

Complimentary
breakfast and lunch!

To learn of upcoming training opportunities:
Text MDCOM2VETS to 898-211

Space is limited. Invitation Only.
One ticket per registration.

Wednesday, May 14, 2025
8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

692 Maritime Boulevard
Linthicum Heights, MD
21090

Learn more, view the agenda and

REGISTER HERE

Veteran-focused vendors on site