Annapolis Film Society Presents Special Screening of Navy Seal film IN WAVES AND WAR

Tuesday, June 18 at 7:00 PM | Bowen Theater at Maryland Hall

Tickets: $20 cash at the door or available online

Annapolis, MD – The Annapolis Film Society invites audiences to a powerful and timely screening of IN WAVES AND WAR on Tuesday, June 18 at 7:00 PM at the Bowen Theater at Maryland Hall.

Directed by award-winning filmmakers Jon Shenk and Bonni Cohen (Athlete A, An Inconvenient Sequel: Truth to Power), IN WAVES AND WAR is an emotional and inspiring odyssey that follows three highly decorated Navy SEALs as they return from combat zones in Iraq and Afghanistan, only to face a new battle—treatment-resistant psychological pain, traumatic brain injuries, and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD).

When traditional medical systems fail, these veterans and their families turn to a groundbreaking and controversial form of psychedelic-assisted therapy. This revolutionary treatment, not yet approved in the U.S., offers new hope for healing and reveals the urgent need for reform in the way mental health is treated for America's veterans.

The film centers on Marcus Capone, a Navy SEAL whose return to civilian life is haunted by depression and PTSD. With the support of his wife, Amber, Marcus embarks on a transformative journey of healing through psychedelic therapy. Their story launches a new mission: saving lives in a community plagued by an alarming rate of suicide.

Through intimate interviews, emotionally rich storytelling, captivating animation, and exclusive research from Stanford's Brain Stimulation Lab, IN WAVES AND WAR challenges stigma and uplifts the human spirit.

Tickets are $20 cash at the door or available for purchase online. Seating is limited—advance purchase is strongly recommended. Visit www.annapolisfilmfestival.com for more information and ticketing details.

The 2025 Annapolis Film Society and Annapolis Film Festival season is proudly presented by the Brian & Patricia Giese Foundation.
