Planning for the Future: The Essentials of Special Health Care Needs Planning

April 15, 2026

10 a.m. to 11 a.m. (EST)

or 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. (EST)

Basic estate planning isn't enough when your child has additional needs. It is important to preserve government benefits, ensure quality of care, and have the right people to step in when you can't. Join attorney Sarah Kirkpatrick as she presents information on wills, trusts, and guardianship for families of children with special health care needs.
