

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

MICHIGAN STATE POLICE

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Michigan State Police for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Michigan State Police.

The Michigan State Police answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Michigan State Police for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

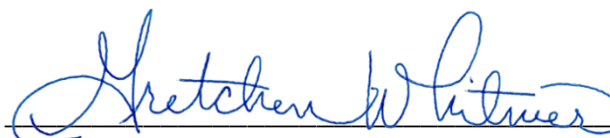

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Michigan State Police. Not only did the Michigan State Police rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Michigan State Police's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Michigan State Police in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Michigan State Police, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Michigan State Police for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Michigan State Police for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

MASON POLICE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Mason Police Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Mason Police Department.

The Mason Police Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Mason Police Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

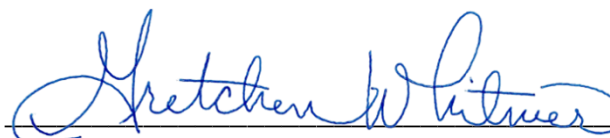

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Mason Police Department. Not only did the Mason Police Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Mason Police Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Mason Police Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Mason Police Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Mason Police Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Mason Police Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

WILLIAMSTON POLICE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Williamston Police Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Williamston Police Department.

The Williamston Police Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Williamston Police Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

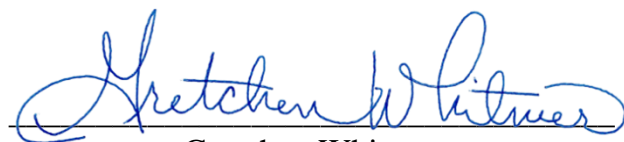

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Williamston Police Department. Not only did the Williamston Police Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Williamston Police Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Williamston Police Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Williamston Police Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Williamston Police Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Williamston Police Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

INGHAM COUNTY SHERIFF DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Ingham County Sheriff Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Ingham County Sheriff Department.

The Ingham County Sheriff Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Ingham County Sheriff Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

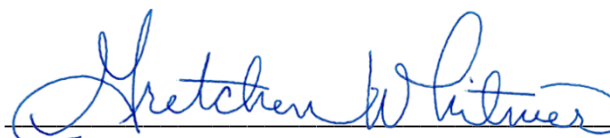

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Ingham County Sheriff Department. Not only did the Ingham County Sheriff Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Ingham County Sheriff Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Ingham County Sheriff Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Ingham County Sheriff Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Ingham County Sheriff Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Ingham County Sheriff Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

LESLIE POLICE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Leslie Police Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Leslie Police Department.

The Leslie Police Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Leslie Police Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

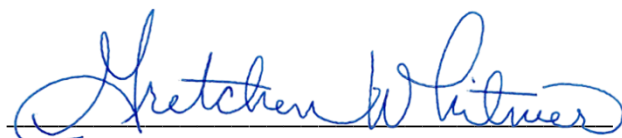

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Leslie Police Department. Not only did the Leslie Police Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Leslie Police Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Leslie Police Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Leslie Police Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Leslie Police Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Leslie Police Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

EAST LANSING POLICE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the East Lansing Police Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the East Lansing Police Department.

The East Lansing Police Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the East Lansing Police Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

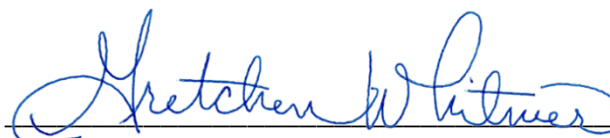

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the East Lansing Police Department. Not only did the East Lansing Police Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the East Lansing Police Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the East Lansing Police Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the East Lansing Police Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the East Lansing Police Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the East Lansing Police Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

LANSING POLICE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Lansing Police Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Lansing Police Department.

The Lansing Police Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Lansing Police Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

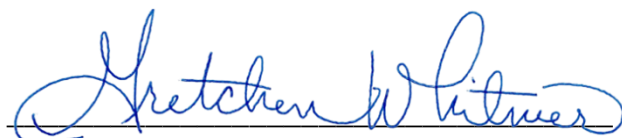

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Lansing Police Department. Not only did the Lansing Police Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Lansing Police Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Lansing Police Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Lansing Police Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Lansing Police Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Lansing Police Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

LANSING TOWNSHIP POLICE DEPARTMENT

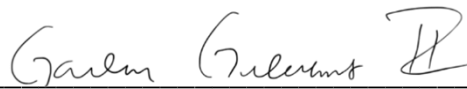

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Lansing Township Police Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Lansing Township Police Department.

The Lansing Township Police Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Lansing Township Police Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

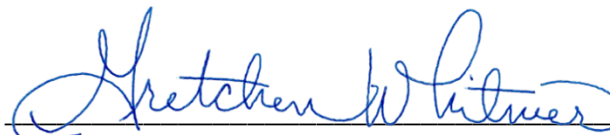

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Lansing Township Police Department. Not only did the Lansing Township Police Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Lansing Township Police Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Lansing Township Police Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Lansing Township Police Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Lansing Township Police Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Lansing Township Police Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing

February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

MERIDIAN TOWNSHIP POLICE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Meridian Township Police Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Meridian Township Police Department.

The Meridian Township Police Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Meridian Township Police Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

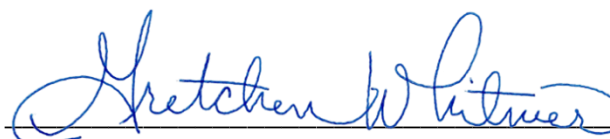

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Meridian Township Police Department. Not only did the Meridian Township Police Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Meridian Township Police Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Meridian Township Police Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Meridian Township Police Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Meridian Township Police Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Meridian Township Police Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing

February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

EATON COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Eaton County Police Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Eaton County Police Department.

The Eaton County Police Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Eaton County Police Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

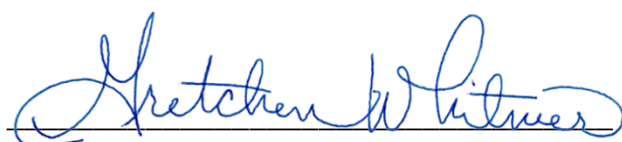

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Eaton County Police Department. Not only did the Eaton County Police Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Eaton County Police Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Eaton County Police Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Eaton County Police Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Eaton County Police Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Eaton County Police Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

LIVINGSTON COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

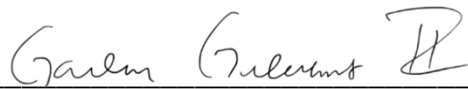

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Livingston County Police Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Livingston County Police Department.

The Livingston County Police Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Livingston County Police Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

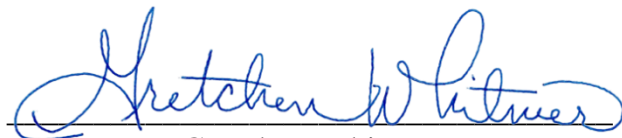

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Livingston County Police Department. Not only did the Livingston County Police Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Livingston County Police Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Livingston County Police Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Livingston County Police Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Livingston County Police Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Livingston County Police Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing

February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

CLINTON COUNTY SPECIAL OPERATIONS TEAM

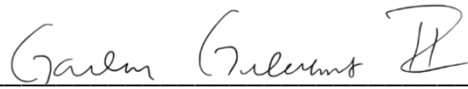

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Clinton County Special Operations Team for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Clinton County Special Operations Team.

The Clinton County Special Operations Team answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Clinton County Special Operations Team for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

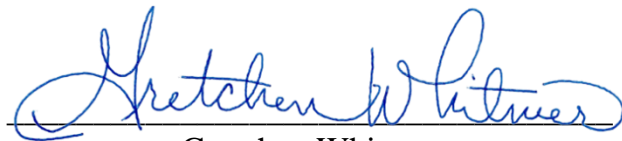

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Clinton County Special Operations Team. Not only did the Clinton County Special Operations Team rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Clinton County Special Operations Team's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Clinton County Special Operations Team in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Clinton County Special Operations Team, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Clinton County Special Operations Team for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Clinton County Special Operations Team for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

OAKLAND COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Oakland County Police Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Oakland County Police Department.

The Oakland County Police Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Oakland County Police Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

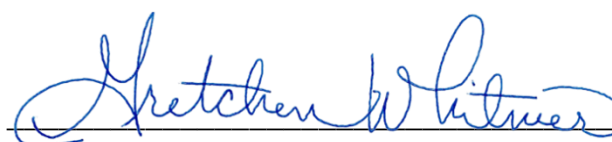

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Oakland County Police Department. Not only did the Oakland County Police Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Oakland County Police Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Oakland County Police Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Oakland County Police Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Oakland County Police Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Oakland County Police Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Federal Bureau of Investigation for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Federal Bureau of Investigation for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

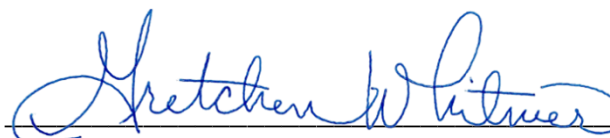

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Not only did the Federal Bureau of Investigation rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Federal Bureau of Investigation's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Federal Bureau of Investigation for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Federal Bureau of Investigation for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Department of Homeland Security for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Department of Homeland Security.

The Department of Homeland Security answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Department of Homeland Security for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

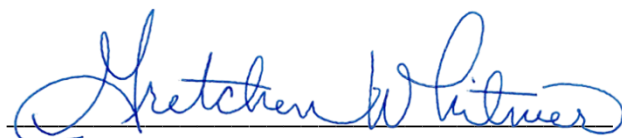

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Department of Homeland Security. Not only did the Department of Homeland Security rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Department of Homeland Security's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Department of Homeland Security in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Department of Homeland Security, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Department of Homeland Security for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Department of Homeland Security for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

AUBURN HILLS POLICE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Auburn Hills Police Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Auburn Hills Police Department.

The Auburn Hills Police Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Auburn Hills Police Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

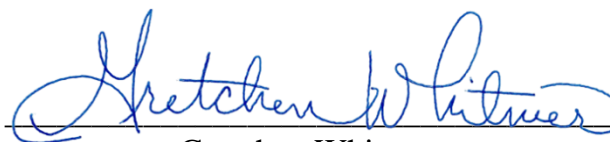

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Auburn Hills Police Department. Not only did the Auburn Hills Police Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Auburn Hills Police Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Auburn Hills Police Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Auburn Hills Police Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Auburn Hills Police Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Auburn Hills Police Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

BUREAU OF ALCOHOL, TOBACCO, FIREARMS AND EXPLOSIVES

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.

The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

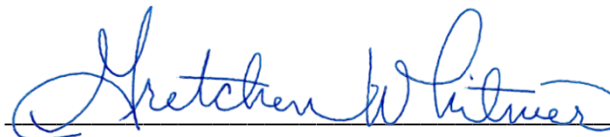

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives. Not only did the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

UNITED STATES BORDER PATROL

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the United States Border Patrol for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the United States Border Patrol.

The United States Border Patrol answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the United States Border Patrol for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the United States Border Patrol. Not only did the United States Border Patrol rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the United States Border Patrol's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the United States Border Patrol in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the United States Border Patrol, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the United States Border Patrol for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the United States Border Patrol for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

UNITED STATES MARSHALLS

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the United States Marshalls for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the United States Marshalls.

The United States Marshalls answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the United States Marshalls for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

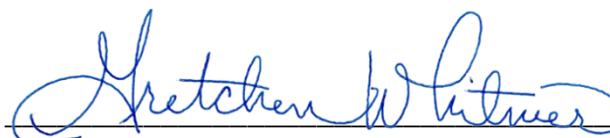

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the United States Marshalls. Not only did the United States Marshalls rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the United States Marshalls's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the United States Marshalls in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the United States Marshalls, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the United States Marshalls for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the United States Marshalls for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

EAST LANSING FIRE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the East Lansing Fire Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the East Lansing Fire Department.

The East Lansing Fire Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the East Lansing Fire Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

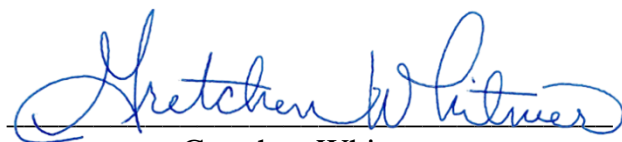

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the East Lansing Fire Department. Not only did the East Lansing Fire Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the East Lansing Fire Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the East Lansing Fire Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the East Lansing Fire Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the East Lansing Fire Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the East Lansing Fire Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

LANSING FIRE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Lansing Fire Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Lansing Fire Department.

The Lansing Fire Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Lansing Fire Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

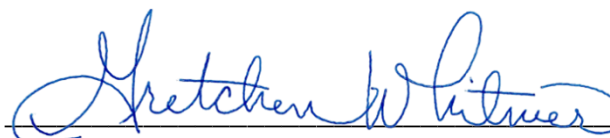

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Lansing Fire Department. Not only did the Lansing Fire Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Lansing Fire Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Lansing Fire Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Lansing Fire Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Lansing Fire Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Lansing Fire Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

LANSING TOWNSHIP FIRE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Lansing Township Fire Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Lansing Township Fire Department.

The Lansing Township Fire Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Lansing Township Fire Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

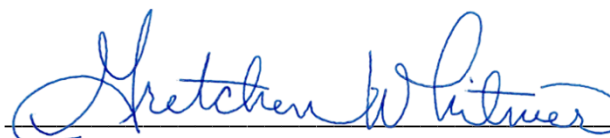

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Lansing Township Fire Department. Not only did the Lansing Township Fire Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Lansing Township Fire Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Lansing Township Fire Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Lansing Township Fire Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Lansing Township Fire Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Lansing Township Fire Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

MERIDIAN TOWNSHIP FIRE DEPARTMENT

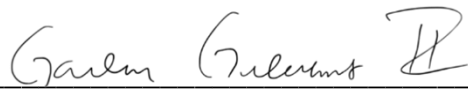

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Meridian Township Fire Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Meridian Township Fire Department.

The Meridian Township Fire Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Meridian Township Fire Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

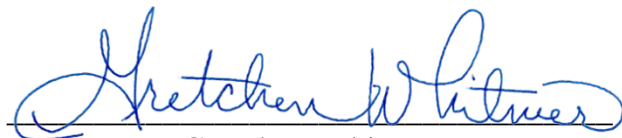

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Meridian Township Fire Department. Not only did the Meridian Township Fire Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Meridian Township Fire Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Meridian Township Fire Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Meridian Township Fire Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Meridian Township Fire Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Meridian Township Fire Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing

February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

WILLIAMSTON FIRE DEPARTMENT

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Williamston Fire Department for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Williamston Fire Department.

The Williamston Fire Department answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Williamston Fire Department for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

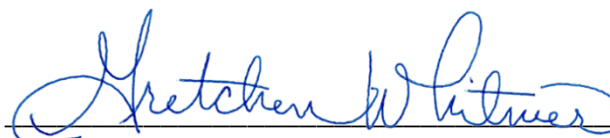

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Williamston Fire Department. Not only did the Williamston Fire Department rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Williamston Fire Department's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Williamston Fire Department in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Williamston Fire Department, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Williamston Fire Department for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Williamston Fire Department for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The One Hundred and Second Legislature
At Lansing
February 17, 2023

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

NORTHEAST INGHAM EMERGENCY SERVICE AUTHORITY

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is with deep appreciation that we thank the Northeast Ingham Emergency Service Authority for their quick, decisive response to the tragic shooting at Michigan State University on February 13, 2023. The coordinated efforts of agencies across our state provided critical support to Michigan State University in a time of dire need, and we are proud to recognize the bravery and dedication to duty demonstrated by the Northeast Ingham Emergency Service Authority.

The Northeast Ingham Emergency Service Authority answered the call to serve our state without hesitation or fear. The quick response of police, fire, and other law enforcement agencies saved critical time to apprehend the shooter and provided instrumental support for the Michigan State University Police Department. Spartans across the state looked to first responders like the Northeast Ingham Emergency Service Authority for protection, answers, and support throughout this crisis, which the brave men and women of this agency provided without question.

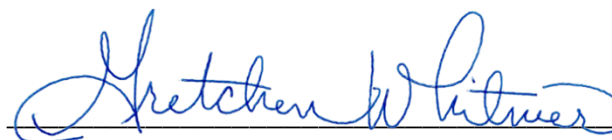

Over the nearly 5-hour incident and investigation, Michigan State University students and residents across the East Lansing community depended greatly on the hard work, bravery, and quick-thinking of first responders like the Northeast Ingham Emergency Service Authority. Not only did the Northeast Ingham Emergency Service Authority rise to the occasion, but they also performed their jobs under tremendous pressure. The entire State of Michigan is grateful for the Northeast Ingham Emergency Service Authority's swift response to calls for help.

As the State of Michigan moves forward to heal, please know that the efforts of the Northeast Ingham Emergency Service Authority in this time of crisis will be long remembered. In times of crisis, it is important to look for the light in each other. We see that light in the actions of dedicated first responders like the Northeast Ingham Emergency Service Authority, and their rush to help. The partnership of agencies across the state demonstrates the incredible strength in working together to protect our community. The entire State of Michigan thanks the Northeast Ingham Emergency Service Authority for their service.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, this document is signed and dedicated to thanking the Northeast Ingham Emergency Service Authority for their bravery in responding to this crisis. We extend our gratitude for the bravery of the men and women who showed up for their fellow Michiganders in their time of need and offer our best wishes for strength, healing, and peace in the wake of this senseless tragedy.

Garlin Gilchrist II
Lieutenant Governor

Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

At Lansing
February 17, 2023