Michigan Developmental Disabilities Council

Department: Health and Human Services

Board Members: 21

Term Length: 4 years

The Michigan Developmental Disabilities Council's tasks and activities are:

1. To act as an advocate for people with developmental disabilities, as a strong voice working on behalf of those citizens; and to increase access to appropriate treatment, services and habilitation for such disabilities. Objectives of this advocacy include supporting and encouraging people to take control of their lives through community-wide, results-oriented action.
2. To channel federal funds, in the form of grants, where they can do the best and carry out the Five-Year Strategic State Plan. The grants are awarded to state and local agencies and organizations (grantees) in Michigan. These state and local groups create programs and services that support people with developmental disabilities and the objectives of the DD Council. Programs and services that receive council grants are monitored for their productivity and results. These programs lead to independence, community inclusion and productivity for Michigan citizens with developmental disabilities.
4. To maintain and financially support a very effective system of local networking groups across the state known as "regional interagency consumer committees," or RICCs. Each RICC -- there are 43 of them -- offers lines of communication and information to local agencies that support people with developmental disabilities. Members of the RICCs come from these local groups, thus solidifying objectives and insuring results.

5. To work together with other human service agencies to assist persons with developmental disabilities and to help carry out Council responsibilities set forth in the Developmental Disabilities Act.

Appointment opportunities:
