

National Improvised Explosives Familiarization (NIEF)

Improvised Explosives & Threat Awareness Training

When: Wednesday, August 14, 2019 8:30 am to 5:00 pm

Where: Fort Custer Training Center
"The Pentagon"
Battle Creek, MI

Who Should Attend:

This training is intended for law enforcement, fire service, emergency management, education and private industry response personnel. Anyone with an interest in the threat posed by improvised explosives.

Course Description:

This training is hosted by FBI-Detroit in conjunction with the FBI Weapons of Mass Destruction Directorate and the FBI Laboratory. Attendees will receive lectures in the morning on current WMD threats and the emerging threat posed by improvised explosives. After lunch, students will witness a demonstration involving detonation of a variety of improvised explosives and incendiaries, most of which can be mixed using common household chemicals. This demonstration is designed to underscore the potential danger of these chemicals, both in the hands of terrorists as well as juvenile experimenters.

Registration: For further information and to reserve your seat at this event please contact SABT Mark E. Davidson at 586.530.5206 or at medavidson@ic.fbi.gov. Seating is limited. Cameras and video equipment will be permitted during the demonstration, but are limited to private use only.

The training will include out door range activities. Participants are advised to dress appropriately.
