FORTH ARREST MADE IN MURDER INVESTIGATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APRIL 14, 2023

The Michigan State Police have arrested a fourth suspect related to the murder of Kayla Sedoskey, whose body was found at the abandoned Boysville building on March 2, 2023. The suspect is charged with Homicide-Open Murder and Conspiracy to Commit Homicide-Open Murder. The suspect was arrested in North Carolina after a standoff with U.S. Marshalls. His name is being withheld pending extradition to Michigan and arraignment. Sierra Bemis, Brin Smith and Kaylyn Ramsey were previously arrested and charged with the same charges in relation to Sedoskey's death.

The Monroe County Prosecutor's Office is still reviewing the incident for possible charges on other suspects. If you have any further information relating to the death of Kayla Sedoskey, please contact D/Sgt Michael Peterson at the MSP Monroe Post 734-242-3500.
