Kalkaska Woman Arrested for Accosting a Child for Immoral Purposes

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Date: January 30, 2024

KALKASKA COUNTY, MI. In September 2023, the Michigan State Police (MSP) Houghton Lake Post was notified of a woman who had been allegedly texting and snapchatting inappropriate things to a minor. The victim knew the suspect, identified as 79-year-old Sue Ann Asch from Kalkaska. The victim was interviewed at the Children's Advocacy Center in Traverse City. Search warrants were obtained for Asch's residence and several electronic devices were seized. The devices were sent to the MSP Computer Crimes Unit for analysis.

A report was submitted to the Kalkaska County Prosecutor's Office for review and a felony warrant was authorized on January 8, 2024. Asch was informed of the warrant and turned herself in. She was lodged in the Kalkaska County Jail.

Asch was arraigned yesterday in the 87-B District Court in Kalkaska County on one count Accosting Children for Immoral Purposes. Her bond was set at $5,000 10%. Her next scheduled court appearance is on February 12, 2024, at 1:30 p.m.
