FRENCHTOWN RESIDENT CONVICTED IN KAYLA SEDOSKEY MURDER INVESTIGATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 22, 2024

Frenchtown Township, Monroe County: Steven Bails, a 45-year-old Frenchtown Township resident, was convicted by a jury on March 21, 2024, in the 38th Circuit Court of Monroe of First-Degree Homicide and Conspiracy to Commit Homicide in connection to the death of Kayla Sedoskey, a 23-year-old Monroe resident. Sedoskey's body was found in the abandoned Boysville Facility in Frenchtown Township on March 2, 2023. The Michigan State Police conducted an extensive year-long investigation into her death and subsequently arrested six suspects, including Steven Bails. In addition to the Steven Bails conviction, Narena Bails and Sierra Bemis previously pled guilty to Second Degree Homicide. Alexander Feko previously pled guilty to Tampering with Evidence and three counts of Accessory to Homicide after the Fact. Brin Smith and Kaylyn Ramsey are both awaiting trial for the charges of First-Degree Homicide and Conspiracy to Commit Homicide. The Michigan State Police were assisted in their investigation by the Monroe County Sheriff's Office, the Huron County (OH) Sheriff's Office, the New Hanover County (NC) Sheriff's Office, the U.S. Marshal's Service, and the Shelby (OH) Police Department. If anyone has any information relating to Kayla Sedoskey's death, please contact D/Sgt Michael Peterson at (734)242-3500.
