

HAMLIN UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR JUSTICE AND LAW PRESENTS OUR

Poverty Series

During the 2019-2020 academic year, the Center for Justice and Law will focus on the theme of the criminalization of poverty. The mission of the center is to work with community partners to generate creative,
concrete, and equitable policy solutions .

UPCOMING EVENTS

Wrongful Convictions: Race & PovertyFriday, Oct 4, 2019
We Are All Criminals with Emily BaxterFriday, Nov 22, 2019
Blueprint to Ending Poverty ConferenceFriday, Dec 6, 2019
Criminalization of Poverty Legislative UpdateFriday, Feb 7, 2020
Poverty and Barriers to Reentry.....Friday, Mar 6, 2020
Little Earth Project, Peacemaking and Youth.....Friday Apr 3, 2020
Women, Trauma, Mental Health & Poverty.....Friday, May 1, 2020

Email cjl@hamline.edu with any questions or to join our mailing list!

Follow us on Facebook @hucjl

Visit our website at <http://hamline.edu/cjl>