Job Connections Group

The mission of the Job Connections Group is to provide a network of assistance and support to individuals who are experiencing a job transition. The group assists individuals in transition by providing education, mentoring, networking, coordination of job search resources, sharing of experiences and other support measures.

Our meetings are staffed by professional volunteers who are experienced in job search techniques and accessing helpful resources. All guest speakers offer their services gratis so there is never a cost for any of the job search workshops.

Anyone currently seeking new employment opportunities is welcome to attend any of our meetings or workshops.
