

School to Housing

Working in school communities to prevent family homelessness and promote educational stability

School to Housing is for families

- In Bloomington, Robbinsdale, Richfield, Hopkins, Eden Prairie and Intermediate 287 school districts
- Who need help navigating a housing challenge
- Who are at risk of losing their housing

You can get help

A school housing navigator can connect you with resources to

- Identify your housing needs and goals
- Get referrals for county and community supports
- Find help to meet your needs: rent assistance (if income eligible and as resources available), employment, and more

Get connected

Don't wait to get help

- Ask your school social worker for a referral
