WINE

Coppola Claret

Coppola Claret is a Cabernet Sauvignon classic, Bordeaux-style blend wine. The Coppola Claret with its flavors, full body, and long finish, makes for a rich and charming wine that is bound to make you want more.

Best paired with beef, lamb, game and poultry. It also stands out very well in a red wine sauce with braised beef. And let's not forget pasta!

SPIRITS

Drambuie

You can't go wrong with a classic like Drambuie Liqueur! This crowd-pleaser would be appreciated by anyone that enjoys whiskey. A blend of aged Scotch Whisky, spices, herbs and heather honey, its origins date back to the 18th century. The name Drambuie is derived from Scots Gaelic and means "The Drink that Satisfies". Try it neat or in a cocktail.

BEER

Summit Winter Ale

Beer is not just for hot summer days on a patio! Summit has a Winter Ale that is brewed just for those snowy winter nights. Comforting as a down blanket, and way better tasting. Summit describes this beer as floral, spicy, bready and sweet - something to appeal to all beer lovers!

BEER

Castle Cream Ale

Castle Cream Ale is always an excellent choice! Deep golden in color, it is malty and smooth. It will be enjoyed by beer enthusiasts and novices alike.

Try it in a hearty recipe, such as chili or stew. Or, for the ultimate creamy delight, try a Cream Ale Float! Pour a glass of Castle Danger Cream Ale, add a teaspoon of chocolate syrup and a scoop of vanilla ice cream.

BEER

Schell's Firebrick

Schell's Firebrick is a refreshing Vienna style amber lager. It's named after the bricks that line the old boilers at the historic Schell's Brewery. Firebrick has a hint of hops combined with a subtle maltiness that creates a mild, pleasantly drinkable beer for anytime of the year.
