

Black Women Advancing Equity: Federal Leaders Fostering Inclusive Infrastructure Opportunities

February 21st | 9:00-10:00 AM CT

Hosted by

Tammi Fleming, PhD

National Infrastructure Investment

Equity Fellow

U.S. DOL Women's Bureau &
Chicago FEB

Register Here:
<https://bit.ly/3UzHX6J>

Please join the U.S. Department of Labor's Women's Bureau's virtual event discussing equity for Black women in upcoming infrastructure job opportunities. In commemoration of Black History Month, this event will lift up the work of federal leaders to address historical equity issues in construction careers, as well as share information on future inclusive job opportunities for Black women in infrastructure.

For questions, please reach out to WB-CHI@dol.gov.

www.dol.gov/wb

WOMEN'S BUREAU
Advocating for working women
since 1920

Kelley Brookins, MBA
Regional Administrator
Department of Transportation
Federal Transit Administration

Zina Watkins
Regional Director
U.S. Department of Labor
Job Corps

Angela Green, MSW
Regional Administrator
U.S. Department of Health & Human Services
Administration for Children & Families

Diane Shelley, J.D.
Regional Administrator
U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development

