

Missouri Cannabis Regulation Collaborative (MCRC)

Application Selection Process

Who can apply?	Any owner, operator, compliance manager or other leadership representative within a licensed operating facility. Microbusiness licensees must be working towards operational. To help support clear communication, DCR will require acknowledgement from the Designated Contact that the applicant may represent the licensee on their behalf. Other considerations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Only one representative from a license may apply.</li><li>Only one representative from a group of licensees linked through common ownership or under common management may apply.</li><li>In case of member openings on MCRC, DCR may hold a new application period for new members to complete an existing term.</li></ul>
What is the time commitment for members?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>In-person quarterly meetings (Approximately 4 hours)</li><li>There may be some work between meetings and/or voluntary subgroup meetings for specific topics.</li><li>In-person meetings will be in Jefferson City.</li><li>2-year term</li></ul>
How will you select members?	DCR wants to ensure a diverse workgroup comprising many different business structures, including small and large facilities, multiple license holders, stand-alone operators, individuals with a variety of backgrounds and expertise, etc. The collaborative will have representation from all license types and regions across the state, with no more than 30 members.  Applications will be selected by a committee comprised of the DCR Public Outreach Director, a representative from the DCR Program Development Unit and the Section for Patient and Application Services, and an individual from another DHSS division with experience in reviewing applications.
