Transformation of Rural Community Health (ToRCH) Care is Missouri's implementation of the federal Rural Health Transformation Program (RHTP), a historic investment designed to reshape healthcare in rural communities across America.

We're excited to launch ToRCH Care Roadshows to connect directly with communities in rural Missouri. This is your opportunity to network with team members from Missouri's Rural Health Transformation Office and help shape the future of rural health in Missouri.

Space is limited at each event. Each event has limited seating and fill up fast! They will be removed from the registration link when all seats are claimed.

Register today to join the conversation and help shape the future of rural health in Missouri.
