

Communication Skills for Families

August 14 • 11:30 a.m.
(Webex)

Communication is a fine art that we often take for granted. It takes energy and the ability to offer support and demonstrate understanding and compassion.

Whether it's an expectation, emotion, question, or other message, openness and willingness to communicate improves overall quality of family communication.

Register Here!

