An adult male died at the hospital days after a shooting.

December 20, 2023 (Minneapolis) On December 16, 2023, at approximately 2:12 a.m., officers from the 2nd Precinct responded to the report of a shooting. Officers identified a male in his 40s with potentially life-threatening gunshot wounds receiving CPR in the intersection of 5th St E and E Hennepin Ave. Officers continued CPR until the injured male was transported to Hennepin Healthcare (HCMC).

Preliminary information indicates that a physical altercation began inside a bar and continued outside. Individuals in the area intervened. As one of the involved adult males was driving from the scene, the injured male approached his vehicle. Shots were fired from the vehicle which then left the scene.

Officers secured the scene and canvassed the area. Forensic Scientists from the Minneapolis Police Forensic Division responded to process the scene and collect evidence. The MPD Homicide division is investigating.

On December 19, 2023, the Hennepin County Medical Examiner identified the deceased as Franklin Ignacio Orellana, informed that Franklin died on December 18th, 2023, declared the cause of his death as gunshot wound of the head and neck, and declared his manner of death as a homicide.

On December 20, 2023, Juan Canario Robles, DOB 5/17/2002, was arrested and booked for Probable Cause Murder.
