Minneapolis Police are investigating the shooting death of a teenager.

December 17, 2024 (Minneapolis): Minneapolis Police Chief Brian O'Hara informed that a 17-year-old boy was shot and killed outside of his residence overnight.

At approximately 7:13 p.m. on Monday, December 16, officers from the 3rd Precinct responded to a shooting on the 1100 Block of 25 St E and identified the juvenile boy with multiple gunshot wounds inside a residence. Officers attempted immediate medical care including a chest seal and CPR. Despite all lifesaving efforts, the 17-year-old boy died inside the residence.

Preliminary information indicates that the injured juvenile was outside his residence with others when shots were fired. He ran inside his residence and collapsed.

MPD Forensic Scientists responded to process the scene and collect evidence. Homicide investigators responded and began their investigation to determine the sequence of events that led up to the shooting.

There have been no arrests.

"Another act of gun violence and another juvenile shot dead," said Minneapolis Police Chief Brian O'Hara. "This senseless act of gun violence has destroyed another young life and left another family with a life of grief. We are asking anyone in the community with information to help our investigators by providing any information they have about this incident. We all must work together to end this level of violence in our neighborhoods."

The Go# for this homicide is 24-356713.
