Healing Moral Injury

Staff Sergeant Parker Gordon Fox Suicide Prevention Grant

It's not PTSD but it's close. Moral injury is the complex soul wound that occurs when a person perpetrates, witnesses, or fails to prevent acts that transgress one's own moral beliefs, values, or ethical codes of conduct. It can also occur as betrayal by an authority figure. This may cause feelings of grief, guilt, shame, and betrayal that can lead to substance abuse, self-condemnation, relationship issues and suicide.
