

Montana Property Tax Rebates

Estimated Claimed Rebates by County (as of September 11, 2023)

-  Estimated percent of eligible properties issued a property tax rebate is above average (yellow)
-  Estimated percent of eligible properties issued a property tax rebate is below average (orange)

Methodology: The Department of Revenue estimated the percent of eligible properties issued a property tax rebate by county using property tax and rebate records, 2020 U.S. Census data, and 2021 1-year American Community Survey data. The purpose of this map is to identify counties where the percent of eligible properties issued a property tax rebate is below average for targeted communications and outreach.
