

SUMMER CHANGES EVERYTHING™

OCTOBER 24-26, 2022 / WASHINGTON, DC

NSLA Pre-Conference for Library Professionals

It's time to reconnect and deepen your library's approach to equitable, affirming summer learning for all.

Please join us for a fun-filled pre-conference day of connection, learning and professional renewal on Monday, October 24, 2022 at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D.C.

national summer learning association

Featured Sessions

9:00 am - 4:00 pm

The Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D.C.

Libraries Deepen Learning: Inclusive Summer Learning in the Library

Dr. Sheryl Davis is Executive Director of San Francisco Human Rights Commission in conversation with Christy Estrovitz, San Francisco Public Library

Attendees will:

- Hear from national leaders including Aaron Dworkin, NSLA CEO and Brooks Rainwater, Urban Libraries CEO
- Hear from Equity Leaders about Building Authentic Community Relationships
- Take part in small group discussions on key topics including making the change from summer reading to learning and evaluation
- Preview culturally affirming literature for equitable book connections
- Engage in hands-on STEM and discuss active learning as equity in summer
- Dive into the neuro science of art with Susan Magsamen of Johns Hopkins and Sandra Magsamen, author of I Wish Wish Wish For You

Featured Speakers

Sign-up today!
Space is limited.

Visit summerlearning.org to register
Use code 2022-PLC-LIBS for a discounted rate on your registration!