

2022 NATIONAL DAY of RACIAL HEALING

JANUARY 18, 2022 • 6:30 – 7:30pm

The National Day of Racial Healing originated in 2017 under the W.K. Kellogg Foundation.

The National Day of Racial Healing provides a time and space for people to acknowledge and see the humanity in others, to facilitate trust, and to build authentic relationships that begin to bridge divides.

Join the Raleigh Human Relations Commission on Tuesday, Jan. 18, 2022, for a webinar with community leaders as we observe the sixth annual National Day of Racial Healing.

The webinar begins at 6:30 pm.
Please log on by 6:20 pm
