

Registration is now OPEN for 2021 Employment and Transition Webinars

NCCDD is hosting a series of ten \(10\) Employment and Transition Webinars starting April 15, 2021 from 9:30 AM - 12:30 PM \(EST\) to educate and inform stakeholders about a statewide system that provides and sustains integrated employment for all North Carolinians living with a developmental disability, regardless of complexity or needed level of support.

Registration is required as space is limited.

Schedule and Registration

SCHEDULE & TOPICS

The webinars will be held every other Thursday, starting April 15 to August 19, 2021 from 9:30 AM - 12:30 PM via Zoom. Each webinar will include breaks and time for Q&As with leading experts in employment and transition planning for people with intellectual and/or other developmental disabilities.

- April 15 - Why Employment First Must be a Priority in North Carolina
- April 29 - Charting the Life Course (An Evidence-based best practice endorsed by ACL) and Person-Centered Thinking
- May 13 - Transition from School to Adult Life of Post-Secondary Education, Competitive Integrated Employment, and Integrated Community Living
- May 27 - The Basics of Supported Decision Making: It's Your Choice
- June 10 - The Role of Assistive Technology and Devices in School, Employment and Community Living
- June 24 - Building Meaningful Lives with an Integrated, Meaningful Day:
- July 8 - Think College and Post-Secondary Education
- July 22 - Customized Employment with Fidelity
- August 5 - Benefits Planning and Creating an ABLE Account
- August 19 - Putting All the Pieces Together for North Carolina Employment First

Employment First stakeholders, transition professionals, self-advocates, families, job coaching/CRP staff, and MCO staff are encouraged to attend.

Schedule and Registration