

Regional "Literacy for Leaders" Seminars

presented by

the SoR Essential Playbook for School Leaders

3 Locations for Your Convenience

Charlotte

Raleigh

Wilmington

October 7

October 11

October 14

Queens University

Friday Institute

Country Club of Landfall

Participants attending the SoR Essential Playbook for School Leaders session will:

- learn how to communicate the basic research behind the science of reading,
- learn the essential components of early literacy instruction,
- be shown examples of evidence-based literacy instruction in action,
- be given time to review their current literacy schedule and evaluate current systems alignment and literacy decision making as it pertains to scheduling, and
- be given look-for tools and resources to immediately put into use in schools to support teachers in implementing evidence-based literacy instruction.

These regional sessions are offered as additional support to The Office of Early Learning Literacy Leaders Webinar series. You do not have to participate in the Literacy Leaders Webinar series to participate in these sessions.

Participants will receive a certificate acknowledging CEU credits.*

Charlotte
Registration

Raleigh
Registration

Wilmington
Registration

sponsored by

Curriculum Associates

Event Fees

Groups of 4 or More: $99
NCPAPA/NCASA Member: $129.00
Student or Teacher $129.00
Non Member: $179.00