

LIVE SOCIAL STUDIES WEBINAR! BUILDING YOUR PRIMARY SOURCES TOOLBOX

Join this session to connect with Elementary, Middle, and High School teachers who are using high quality primary sources to teach the NEW Social Studies Standards.

This virtual workshop will engage you with ideas for where to find and how to use primary source material to facilitate meaningful learning. Teacher presenters will walk you through lesson activities using high quality primary sources aligned to specific standards. An expert from the North Carolina State Archives will share examples of primary sources from their collection that would be impactful in supporting teaching and learning.

Come join us and gain strategies and resources to build your own personal primary sources toolbox!
