

Mastering Leadership Dynamics™ for Educational Leaders

Focus on developing conscious leadership by learning how beliefs drive behaviors, and ultimately create results.

Program Overview

Mastering Leadership Dynamics™ for Educational Leaders uses a blended learning approach that combines face-to-face and virtual sessions with interim activities.

Beginning with the key competency of self-awareness, principals engage in learning how beliefs drive behaviors and ultimately create results. This simple model represents the core of what great leaders do and identifies the significance of awareness—of ourselves, others and organizations.

Program Basics

Audience: Public school principals

Duration: Blended learning experience occurring over 8 weeks

Location: Truist Leadership Institute campus for on-campus sessions and your location for live online sessions and self-paced assignments

Recommended prerequisites: None

Truist Leadership Institute is honored to provide this development opportunity for public school leaders at no cost.

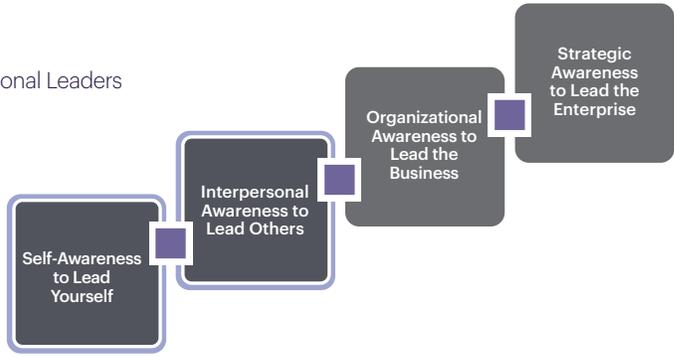

Program Objectives

- Increase your awareness of patterns of thinking, feeling, and behaving, and how these patterns impact leadership effectiveness.
- Understand the impact of your personality and be able to increase your positive impact and decrease your negative impact on others.
- Learn to use leadership strategies versus relying on a leadership style.
- Improve your ability to increase optimism, build resilience, and overcome obstacles in the face of difficult business issues.
- Heighten your ability to form and maintain critical internal and external relationships.
- Learn communication strategies for understanding, resolving, and growing from conflict.
- Develop a purpose statement that serves as a focal point and a guiding factor in your leadership approach.
- Create an actionable plan for achieving identified leadership objectives and learn a proven process for addressing future leadership challenges.

Register for Mastering Leadership Dynamics for Educational Leaders

The leadership development process

Where does this program fit in? Mastering Leadership Dynamics™ for Educational Leaders is a foundational course focusing on self and interpersonal awareness. The course is recommended prior to taking higher-level classes.

Our campus

Surrounded by panoramic views of breathtaking natural scenery, The Kelly S. King Center is a one-of-a-kind retreat in Greensboro, North Carolina and the perfect getaway for self-discovery and personal growth.