

Now Accepting

Applications

North Carolina Educator Design Teams

North Carolina is launching educator design teams to create student-facing micro-credential pathways that prepare learners for safe, ethical, and informed use of digital technologies.

Pathways to be Designed

Social Media Literacy (Session Law 2025-38/ HB 959):

- K–5
- 6–8
- High School: 9–12
- High School: 11–12

AI Literacy

- K–2: Exploring AI in Everyday Life Safely
- 3–5: Building Curiosity and Responsibility with AI
- 6–8: Critical Thinking, Bias, and Safe Use of AI Tools
- 9–12: Ethical, Academic, and Career-Ready Use of AI

QUESTIONS?

Contact Dr. Ashley McBride
Ashley.McBride@dpi.nc.gov

WHO SHOULD APPLY

- Classroom teachers, counselors, media specialists, digital learning facilitators, School Librarians, and district/school leaders.
- Educators with experience in digital citizenship, media literacy, counseling, SEL, CTE, ELA, health/PE, or instructional design.
- Voices from rural, suburban, and urban contexts across NC.

WHAT YOU WILL DO

- Co-design clear, student-friendly micro-credentials.
- Align content to Session Law 2025-38 (social media) and the NC AI Guidelines (AI literacy).
- Ensure tasks are classroom-ready and accessible to diverse learners.
- Team members will be compensated at the rate of 1,000 per micro-credential.

APPLICATIONS

Applications Due: Wednesday, October 9
Notifications Sent: Tuesday, October 15

APPLY NOW

DIGITAL TEACHING AND LEARNING
NC Department of Public Instruction