STORY-DRIVEN SOCIAL STUDIES with Literacy Connections FOR ELEMENTARY LEARNERS

NCCSS WEBINAR:

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2026

TIME:

6:00 PM – 7:30 PM

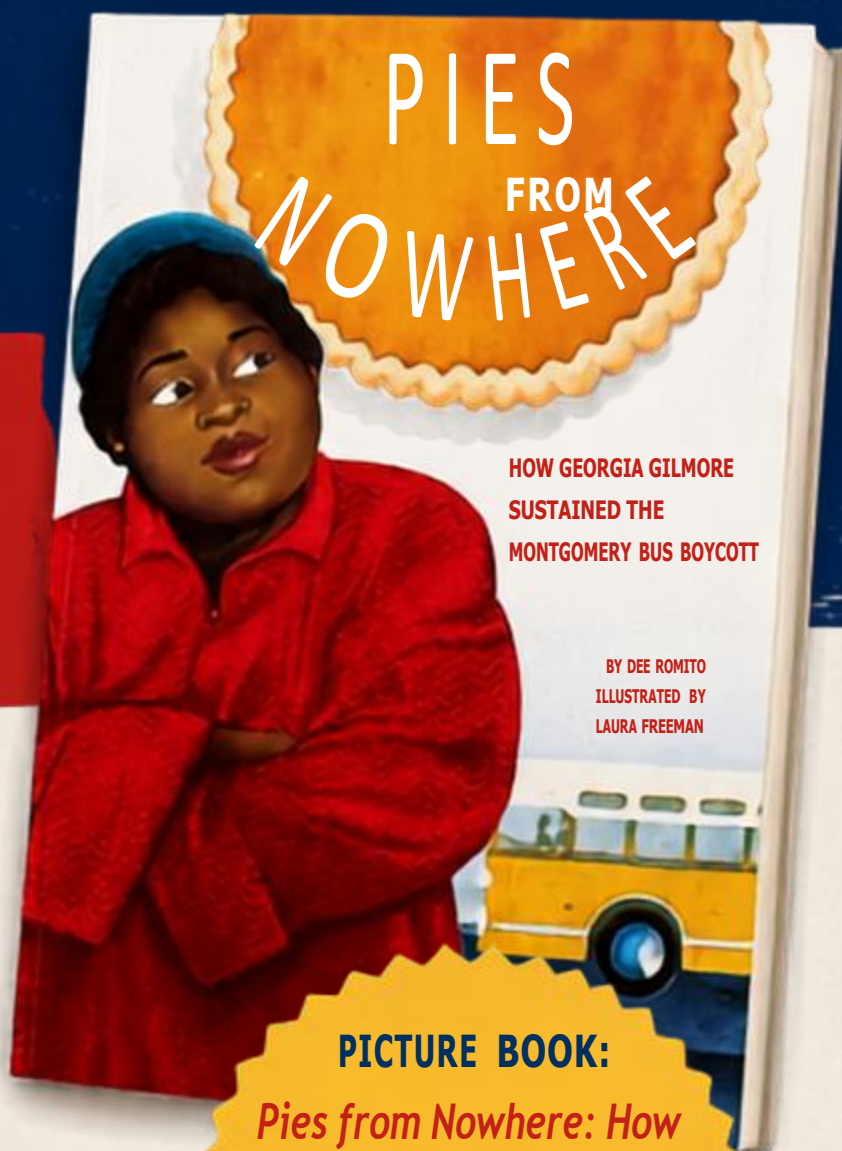

PRESENTER:

Michelle McLaughlin, NCDPI

CEU CERTIFICATE:

1.5 Contact Hours

PICTURE BOOK:

Pies from Nowhere: How Georgia Gilmore Sustained the Montgomery Bus Boycott by Dee Romito

Bring the power of storytelling to your elementary social studies classroom! This engaging webinar has been designed to center on the inspiring picture book Pies from Nowhere: How Georgia Gilmore Sustained the Montgomery Bus Boycott by Dee Romito.

Participants will discover practical strategies for using picture books, narratives, and primary sources to make social studies content meaningful and accessible for all learners. The session will highlight ways to connect social studies instruction with the NC Literacy Instruction Standards (LIS) and support disciplinary literacy and inquiry in social studies and across the curriculum.

Join us and leave with ready-to-use ideas and resources you can bring to your classroom to spark curiosity, strengthen literacy skills, and deepen students' understanding of people, places, and historical events.
