Join us for a Day of Learning With Brandeis University President's Initiative on Antisemitism

Friday, October 9th Durham, NC 9:00-3:30

Join school leaders, safety teams, and educators from public, private, and homeschool settings for an interactive day of professional learning.

Participants will explore contemporary antisemitism, its historical roots, how it appears in schools, and practical strategies for responding effectively.

Participants will earn CEUs through the Stan Greenspon Holocaust Education Center. Schools are encouraged to register teams, though individual registrations are welcome. This program is open exclusively to educators and school personnel.
