

NHIP Provider Newsletter: Education Resources

The New England Public Health Training Center offers student stipends for individuals pursuing a graduate or doctoral degree in public health. Applications are being accepted for Spring 2025! For details on the application process, view the Program Guidebook.

Check out NEPHTC's other training opportunities.

CDC's Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP): <https://www.cdc.gov/acip/>

Next meeting: February 26-27, 2025

Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP)

The Pink Book: Epidemiology and Prevention of Vaccine-Preventable Diseases: Visit the Pink Book Education Series webpage for web-on-demand training modules covering immunization basics. Continuing education (CE) credits are available.

CDC's Immunization Courses: CEUs available per module at: <https://www.cdc.gov/vaccines/ed/courses.html>.

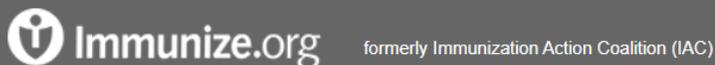

CDC Clinician Outreach and Communication Activity (COCA) Calls: Get the latest CDC clinical guidance by registering for their "Clinician Outreach and Communication Activity" (COCA) calls. For upcoming calls, archived calls, and webinars click here.

CDC TRAIN: Training and CEU's available through the CDC's TRAIN Learning Network. To learn more, or to register for your FREE account, click here.

E-Learning: Vaccine Administration: CEUs available through 3/16/2025
<https://www.cdc.gov/vaccines/hcp/admin/admin-protocols.html>.

National Foundation for Infectious Diseases (NFID) Resources: NFID hosts free monthly webinars at: <https://www.nfid.org/education-events/webinars/>.

For additional training resources from CDC Partners: click here.

Immunize.org: Immunize.org's website provides many tools and resources, including "Ask the Experts", current VIS (in many languages), clinic tools, patient handouts, package inserts, and an informative weekly newsletter.

NDSU Center for Immunization Research and Education: Visit their website for webinars and other virtual educational opportunities with CEUs.