

TIJERAS CREEK CULTURAL CORRIDOR PLAN PUBLIC INPUT OPEN HOUSE

ABOUT THE PROJECT

The City of Albuquerque Open Space Division and partners are preparing the Tijeras Creek Cultural Corridor Plan (Plan) that will cover a geographic area spanning portions of the Tijeras Creek watershed starting at the Singing Arrow Community Center and archaeological site heading east to include the Carnué Land Grant, Village of Tijeras, and Bernalillo County Open Space as shown on the following context map.

The Plan will be both a policy and planning document that will help the City and other jurisdictions identify cultural and biological themes, planning priorities, and natural resource and cultural management objectives for trail building, interpretive signage, and other planning and implementation requirements.

OPEN HOUSE DETAILS

An Open House will be held to gather public input on the following project initiatives:

- ✕ Open Space and Trail Maps
