+ Course has a Prerequisite, see course description. If you are signing up for a course that has a prerequisite you must list your qualifying experience or course work here:

Special Needs: Please indicate needs and we will try to accommodate you. Dietary requests are sent to the facility, however we cannot guarantee that all dietary needs can be accommodated. If you have very specific dietary needs you may want to bring your own food to supplement what is provided.

Carpooling: I would be interested in carpooling to the workshop. Yes No

Carpoolers will be sent a list prior to the workshop. There is no public transportation to this workshop.

Scholarships: $100 scholarships are available to those who demonstrate financial need. Preference will be given to women from New York who are first-time workshop attendees, full-time college students, mothers of young children or women with military experience. Please email kelly.stang@dec.ny.gov or call (518) 402-8862 for further information and an application.

Approximately two weeks before the workshop, you will be sent a packet with directions to Greek Peak and a list of what to bring. Equipment will be provided unless otherwise indicated. Please do not bring ammunition or arrows to the workshop.

You must complete and sign the back

Registration fee: The registration fee includes seven meals, double occupancy lodging, instruction in four classes, use of equipment (except where noted), materials and transportation to off-site locations. A few single rooms may be available for an extra fee on a first come, first serve basis. A few triples may be available but there is no discount and the third bed may be a pull out couch or a cot. If you do not name a roommate BOW will assign one. All room assignments will be made on a first registered, first assigned basis.

Add additional fees as needed. Partial scholarships may be available (see front page).
