Ohio CAN: What it's all about

Ohio CAN is connecting producers with communities! The mission is to provide food to those in need from historically underrepresented regional producers.

How it works

Through this program, producers will be able to sell food to the Ohio Association of Foodbanks, which will then be distributed to Ohioans living in food insecure areas. The purchase of these foods will strengthen the local economies while reducing food insecurity.

Who is eligible

Farmers and producers whose products are grown and produced within 400 miles of the city of Columbus are eligible to apply. Ohio CAN will prioritize applicants who identify as historically underrepresented, such as women, BIPOC, LGBTQ+, veterans, and small, beginner and disabled farmers, as well as those whose income is derived from a public assistance program.

Accepted products

Products must meet the definition for domestic and locally produced foods, and must be raised, grown, produced, sourced, and processed all within a 400-mile radius of the city of Columbus.
