

Ohio Business Roundtable

“Ohio’s property tax system has been placing real strain on homeowners and employers alike, and addressing that challenge requires thoughtful, fiscally responsible solutions. I commend Governor DeWine and the General Assembly for working through a complex and sensitive issue to deliver meaningful relief without undermining the stability communities rely on. This is an important step toward greater stability and fairness for Ohio’s property tax system.”

– Pat Tiberi
President & CEO
Ohio Business Roundtable

County Auditor’s Association

“The County Auditor’s Association commends the Governor and the Legislature for their leadership in enacting the most significant property tax reform in the past 50 years. This package of property tax reform bills will reduce the property tax burden on Ohio taxpayers while ensuring that local governments can continue to deliver essential services. We also want to sincerely thank the Governor for including the Auditors in his work group and allowing us to be a part of the reform process.”

– Matt Nolan
President
County Auditor’s Association
and Warren County Auditor

Ohio REALTORS®

“The property tax legislation passed by the Ohio Legislature and signed by Governor DeWine marks the most substantial tax reform in recent history. Ohio REALTORS® applaud Ohio’s leaders for delivering meaningful tax relief to Ohioans by implementing protections against unvoted tax growth when valuations rise dramatically. Most importantly, these reforms will make homeownership more affordable and keep Ohio competitive in attracting people and businesses to this great state.”

– Michelle Billings
President
Ohio REALTORS®

County Commissioner’s Association of Ohio (CCAO)

“CCAO supports the enactment of HB 124, HB 129, HB 186, and HB 335. Taken together, these bills strike an appropriate balance between taxpayer protection and fiscal responsibility. They represent a meaningful step forward in modernizing Ohio’s property tax structure and responding to the challenges faced by homeowners across the state.”

– David Painter
President, CCAO and
Clermont County Commissioner

Dublin City Schools

“I am proud to have served on the Governor’s Property Tax Workgroup. The Governor’s vision for a diverse group of leaders to come together, achieve consensus through collaboration, and deliver reasonable recommendations, has resulted in legislation that is better for Ohioans. While not perfect for Ohio’s schools, this legislation represents collaboration and compromise that gives districts time to plan and engage our communities.”

– John Marschhausen
Superintendent
Dublin City Schools

County Treasurers Association of Ohio (CTAO)

“The County Treasurers Association of Ohio (CTAO) appreciates the efforts of the Governor and the General Assembly to address rising property taxes and their impact on taxpayers across Ohio. CTAO has long advocated for meaningful, long-term property tax reform to modernize an outdated system and remains committed to working collaboratively with the State of Ohio toward that objective.”

– Brad Cromes
President, CTAO and Cuyahoga County Treasurer

MIKE DEWINE
GOVERNOR OF OHIO

Statements of Support for Ohio Property Tax Relief

Ohio Township Association

“By linking inside millage increases to inflation, House Bill 335 brings greater stability and transparency to property taxes. The Ohio Township Association believes this approach protects taxpayers while allowing townships to continue meeting the needs of their residents.”

– Heidi M. Fought
Executive Director
Ohio Township Association
