OHIO CRISIS INTERVENTION TEAM (CIT) CONFERENCE

MORNING KEYNOTE: 25 Years of CIT in Ohio: Much to Celebrate, Many to Thank!!!

Dr. Mark Munetz, Peg's Foundation and Northeast Ohio Medical University
Ret. Commander Chris Bowling, Columbus Division of Police
Lieutenant Stephen Noftz, Ohio Health O'Bleness Hospital Security Department
Ruth Simera, Coordinating Centers of Excellence at Northeast Ohio Medical University

This esteemed panel of speakers has a long history of service stretching across multiple fields. Their dedication to and knowledge of the founding history of CIT is remarkable. Please join us at the conference to learn more about how CIT got started in Ohio and glimpse the many partnerships that have helped to shape CIT in our great state.

AFTERNOON PLENARY: NAMI Voice: The partnership between NAMI Affiliates and CIT Programs

Leslie Powlette Stoyer, Former Executive Director
NAMI Summit County

NAMI Ohio has been a long-time partner of CIT in Ohio. Their partnership and passion to serve have proved time and again why they are an asset to CIT programs across the state. As a former NAMI Ohio Affiliate, Leslie will speak to her experience to provide insight on the impact individuals with lived experience and their loved ones have on the successful implementation of CIT programs. Her speech will highlight the importance of the inclusion of those with lived experience in the implementation of a successful CIT training program.
