

2025 Suicide Prevention Conference:

Building Bridges to Well-Being:

Addressing Social Determinants to Prevent Suicide

Hosted by The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center's Harding Hospital and the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Health

The 2025 Suicide Prevention Conference: Building Bridges to Well-Being: Addressing Social Determinants to Prevent Suicide is September 11-12, 2025, at the Fawcett Event Center in Columbus, Ohio. The conference is also available via Zoom for those who can't attend in person.

Featured this year is keynote speaker Peter Na, MD, an addiction psychiatrist at VA Connecticut Healthcare System and assistant professor at Yale, with degrees from Seoul National University and Harvard. He researches psychosocial and environmental factors affecting substance use disorders and suicide, focusing on co-occurring psychiatric conditions and treatment approaches.

Earn Continuing Education Credits by attending the pre-conference workshops and conference sessions. Sessions range from entry-level to advanced and there are opportunities at every professional level. Visit <https://cvent.me/2Zk3wk> for more information.

Pre-conference workshops are free when you register.

To learn more about speakers or registration, please visit <https://cvent.me/2Zk3wk>.

Early bird pricing ends August 20.