

DAVE YOST

OHIO ATTORNEY GENERAL

WE'RE COMING TO YOU SOON!

VICTIM ADVOCATES: Our upcoming regional training sessions offer a close-to-home opportunity for you to learn about how the Attorney General's Office can help.

This fall, the Crime Victim Services Section of the Ohio Attorney General's Office will hit the road to present five regional training sessions for those who work with victims of violent crimes. Please plan to join us!

WHO WILL BENEFIT

Advocates, guardians ad litem, counselors, therapists, adult and child protective service workers, medical professionals, law enforcement officers, attorneys, funeral home professionals who work with families of those lost to homicide, and others who serve victims

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN ABOUT

- Ohio's Crime Victim Compensation Program application process
- The rollout of new software for the Sexual Assault Forensic Examination (SAFE) Program, which ensures that victims of sexual assault have their evidence collected uniformly, and the state's Sexual Assault Kit Tracking System, which keeps victims updated on the status of that evidence
- The work of AGO's Elder Justice Unit and how it can be a valuable resource

WHEN AND WHERE

The trainings will run from 9 a.m. to noon. All are free, but pre-registration is required due to limited seating. CLE/CEU/CPT credits are pending. The schedule of sessions, by location:

- Northeast Region: Sept. 9 in Richfield, 4055 Highlander Parkway
- Southeast Region: Sept. 17 in Athens, 701 E. State St.
- Central Region: Sept. 23 in Columbus, 1980 W. Broad St.
- Southwest Region: Oct. 2 in Centerville, 155 W. Spring Valley Pike
- Northwest Region: Oct. 7 in Bowling Green, 750 N. College Dr.
