COVID-19 SPREAD: CASE STUDY

On June 14, a man with COVID-19 attended a church service in an Ohio county.

Following that service, 91 additional people from five counties developed symptoms of COVID-19. This graphic shows how far the disease had spread by July 4.