

OKLAHOMA
Department of Libraries

Statewide Initiatives

Supporting Library Services. Strengthening Communities. Connect with ODL to strengthen your network, gain insights, and spark ideas. From grant and program opportunities to skill-sharing from field experts, a wide variety of resources is available!

Invest in Core Services

Secure funding and resources necessary to launch bold, new programs and amplify existing services. Stay up-to-date on application windows, grant guidelines, and funding news by subscribing to our newsletter at oklahoma.gov/libraries.

Grants: Apply for funding to implement programs meeting critical community needs.

Health Literacy

_____ opens in the spring _____

Citizenship & Civic Engagement

Technology Grants

_____ opens in the fall _____

Youth Services

_____ opens mid-year _____

Resources and Materials: Apply for materials to support ongoing community programs.

Summer Reading Programs: Receive materials and information to support 'summer slide' prevention. Applications open in the fall.

Story Trails: Boost health literacy with new books and resources to support existing story trails. Applications open in the fall.

Communities of Practice

Connect with libraries in these peer-to-peer working groups to share resources, find inspiration, and exchange best practices. Sign up at bit.ly/SignUpCoP or via QR code!

Youth Services: promoting early literacy, supporting families, and boosting life-long learning

Health Literacy: exploring library health initiatives, helping Oklahomans make informed wellness choices

Workforce Development: focusing on unlocking the full potential of Oklahoma's workforce

Partnering for Success

Whether you're ready to explore a new project, expand existing programs, or seek guidance on next steps, we are here to partner with you. We provide flexible, self-paced learning opportunities, direct support from department specialists, and curated resources across all our statewide initiatives.

To learn more about these opportunities, email statewideprograms@libraries.ok.gov or visit our website.