

ACCESSIBILITY WEBINAR

All of us that create or influence digital learning and websites are responsible for making sure that students and people with disabilities do not run into digital barriers that keep them from using our websites or learning materials.

In this webinar, I will discuss the responsibility that we have to our virtual audience members and some of how students, parents, and guardians with disabilities may interact with our digital content.

February 24, 2021
11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
