OKCareerGuide - Beginner Educator Training: This training is for educators new to using OKCareerGuide - a powerful research-driven career development tool that allows all Oklahoman's to dream big and plan accordingly.

This training will also touch on how ICAP can be met by using OKCareerGuide. This training will provide an introduction to both the student and administrator side of the system. Participants will be able to identify the core features of the student side (especially as they relate to the ICAP graduation requirement), as well as locate some of the main reporting features in the admin side.
