To schedule your vaccine, go to covidvaccine.oregon.gov. All Oregonians age 12 and older are eligible to get vaccinated against COVID-19. The vaccine is free, regardless of your insurance or immigration status. If you have concerns about accessibility, you can always reach out to your family doctor, local health official, or EOCIL at 1-844-489-3119. Talk to friends and family to make sure they are getting vaccinated as well. Getting the vaccine is the best way to protect yourself and others from COVID-19 and its variants.

Special Guest Speaker

Jane Hart (She, They) - Many Sides of Jane

Jane Hart is a mother, an advocate for the vulnerable, an artist and a consultant for mental health professionals who have a desire to learn more about dissociative disorders. Jane worked with A&E TV Network in the creation of her premium documentary series, Many Sides of Jane, to highlight the effects of childhood abuse and raise societal awareness of Dissociative Identity Disorder. Jane's advocacy efforts have been featured in People Magazine, The TODAY Show, The Talk and more. Jane is passionate about helping others find refuge in the truth and giving a voice to the voiceless. A self-proclaimed Human Information Sponge, Jane spends her leisure time reading any and every book she can get her hands on. Jane lives in Boise, Idaho with her two sons, Daniel and Remington.

I was in the restaurant business until the early 1990's at which time I changed career paths and became a Realtor. I launched my Real Estate Career in Galveston Texas. I moved to the Northwest in April 2004 and started working for Garden Valley Properties where I stayed until 2009. At that time I moved to Ontario to be with my husband John Dillon, who had worked for the Argus Observer as the Advertising Director and had recently been promoted to the publisher. I have been the principal broker with Four Star Real Estate since 2011 and am licensed in both Oregon and Idaho. I take my commitment to the community seriously serving on the City Council for Ontario From January 2016 until December 2020. In both my personal and professional life i strive to live by by what I can the 4 Star Standard that includes Honesty-Integrity-Service and Diligence My grandsons Bronson and Carter are very important to me if i not working I am trying to figure how to spend more time with them and their parents.

Ty McBride (He/Him) - Intentionally _____.

Pronounced INTENTIONALLY BLANK, I created and develop a lifestyle shoe brand that is sold in over 5 countries and 125 stores. The brand sells in Urban Outfitters, Free People, Nordstrom, Anthropologie, and fine boutiques and specialty stores around the world. I have a huge web business and also currently have 1 store in upstate NY. I am a self confessed work-a-holic but one who is so obsessed with their work, with the team who supports them and the lives it allows me to touch. My work motivates me to be the best me, and being a queer business owner is a huge part of who I am. I am very proud to be from Eastern Oregon, and I think it shows in my work ethic, my love of community and in the way I approach relationships.

Basic Rights Oregon

Basic Rights Oregon works fearlessly and tirelessly to build a strong, vibrant, powerful, and progressive movement for LGBTQ equality. LGBTQ Oregonians exist in every community, and we understand that we have to engage in strategic, values-based coalitions to address the many needs of our communities. As such, building alliances with progressive groups that advocate for working families, racial justice, immigrant rights, reproductive justice, and campaign reform will be essential to winning policies that meet the varied needs of our diverse community.

Meet our facilitators

Jeff Williams (He/Him/His) - EOCIL

Jeff Williams has been with EOCIL since July of 2014. Jeff has held various positions within EOCIL's Ryan White Program Services program.
