

Educators and public health professionals

My Future · My Choice

Winter Workshop Series

FREE

Click to Register

PIDGEON PAGONIS

AN INTRO TO INTERSEX IDENTITIES

This workshop will serve as an introductory workshop to intersex conditions, inclusivity, and misconceptions as well as exploring how intersex students are affected in the classroom and how teachers can advocate for their students in schools.

11/10/22

3:30PM-5PM
PST

ANGELA CHEN

ASEXUALITY

Angela Chen, science journalist and author of Ace: What Asexuality Reveals About Desire, Society, and the Meaning of Sex, will talk about asexuality – what it is and how understanding this identity makes us better peers, educators and friends.

12/1/22

3:30PM-5PM
PST

BLACK AND BEYOND THE BINARY COLLECTIVE DISABILITY JUSTICE & SEXUAL HEALTH

A facilitated discussion on the intersection of sexual health, education, and disability justice from a Black queer lens. We will cover the foundations of intersectionality and discuss how people living with disabilities navigate community, education, and personal growth as it relates to sexual health and well-being

1/19/23

3:30PM-5PM
PST

TRANSPONDER

SEXUAL HEALTH & THE GENDER DIVERSE EXPERIENCE

This workshop will provide communicative tools to use while navigating conversations surrounding gender, sexuality, and sexual health. We will also explore barriers to affirming health care and recommendations to help educators support trans-spectrum youth.

1/26/23

3:30PM-5PM
PST

ELEVATUS TRAINING LLC

TEACHING STUDENTS WITH I/DD ABOUT SEXUALITY

People with developmental disabilities are sexual beings just like anyone else, but often don't have access to age appropriate, medical accurate sex ed. In this workshop, we will explore specific issues that student with developmental disabilities face and learn practical tools and skills for teaching this population about healthy sexuality.

2/16/23

3:30PM-5PM
PST

ELEVATUS TRAINING
LEADERS IN SEXUALITY AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY

<https://tinyurl.com/4z82tf2a>

Questions? Email: andy.dettinger@dhsosha.state.or.us

