

Kim Singh | Coos County Medical Reserve Corps

Kim Singh has demonstrated outstanding dedication and service over the past year, as well as throughout her many years with the MRC. She has been reliable, kind, and always willing to step in wherever help is needed. Kim brings a wealth of knowledge and works well with fellow volunteers, helping to create a strong and supportive team environment.

She has been actively involved with her local CERT program, serves as an instructor, and is currently involved with the Coast Guard Auxiliary. Additionally, she is a Master Food Preserver. Her contributions have made a meaningful impact on our programs and the community we serve, making her highly deserving of this recognition.
