General Conditions:

It is expressly understood that the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles (TxDMV) shall not be responsible in any way for any damage of whatever nature that may result from the movement of the described vehicle and load over Texas highways, and that all such responsibility and liability is hereby accepted on behalf of the permittee.

This oversize/overweight permit is issued on the condition that the permittee will comply with all laws and rules relating to the movement of oversize and/or overweight vehicles, equipment and/or loads on Texas roads and highways. Permittee may be cited for violation if any of these laws or rules, as adopted by TxDMV, are not followed.

It is the responsibility of the permittee to clear any overhead obstructions or utility lines. In addition, all utility companies or other entities must be contacted in advance, as required by the utility or entity, to assist in clearing the obstruction. For a list of utility companies and their contact information, visit the Public Utility Commission of Texas website: <http://www.puc.texas.gov/industry/electric/directories/>

Routing is the sole responsibility of the permittee.

Permit valid on all state-maintained highways in Texas.

Travel is prohibited on a load-restricted bridge or load-zoned road when exceeding the posted capacity.

This permit authorizes the described vehicle to travel through any state road or highway construction or maintenance area, provided the size and weight of the vehicle do not exceed the construction restrictions available on the TxDMV website, www.txdmv.gov.

This permit does not authorize travel on non-state maintained roadways. It is the permittee's responsibility to obtain any required approvals and permits from local jurisdictions, such as cities and counties, on the roads that they maintain.

All travel on toll roads must be approved by toll road authority(ies).

Permit valid only for commodities that cannot be reasonably dismantled or for hauling more than one item that does not cause or create an over legal dimension or weight in excess of legal limits.
