

Join HHSC in Celebrating
DeafBlind Awareness Week!

The Blind Children's Program (BCP)
will host the first-ever

Art Show

Empowerment Through Art June 24–July 8

In-Person Art Opening Event,
June 24, 10–11 a.m.

Register for In-Person Event

First floor of the Health and Human Services Commission North Austin Complex (4601 W. Guadalupe Street, Austin, TX 78751)

- Tactile artwork from children who are DeafBlind enrolled in BCP services
- Professional artwork and Art Talk from DeafBlind artist Mary Dignan
- Remarks from Keisha Rowe, associate commissioner of Rehabilitative and Independence Services; Joanie Cooksey, BCP manager; Clair Benitez, Office of Disability Coordination director; and a BCP DeafBlind participant.

American Sign Language Interpretation will be provided for both events. If other accommodations are needed to participate, register by June 21.

Virtual Art Opening and
DeafBlind Awareness Week
Kick-Off Event,
June 27, 11–11:45 a.m.

Register for Virtual Event

- Art Talk from DeafBlind artist Mary Dignan
- Remarks from Keisha Rowe, associate commissioner of Rehabilitative and Independence Services, and Joanie Cooksey, BCP manager

TEXAS
Health and Human Services

22D0482