

Non-Suicidal Self Injury Prevention and Child Psychiatry Access Network Webinar

Oct. 18, 2023
12 – 1 p.m.
Webinar

HHSC will host a free continuing education webinar.

This presentation is free and will take place virtually via Microsoft Teams. Continuing education (CE) credit for multiple disciplines will be provided for this event.

Learning Objectives:

- Define non-suicidal self-injury (NSSI).
- Identify the reasons individuals engage in NSSI.
- Recognize the relationship between NSSI and suicide.
- Identify and talk to individuals about NSSI.
- Describe the importance of working with the CPAN to strengthen the pathway to care for children and youth experiencing serious mental health issues.

Speakers:

- Jennifer Crutsinger, MA, LPC-S
HHSC Office of Mental Health Coordination, Youth Grant Project Director
- Laura Hernandez Gold, LCSW-S
HHSC Office of Mental Health Coordination, Suicide Prevention & Project AWARE Co-Coordinator

For more information on continuing education credits, contact hours and to register, click here: <https://events.teams.microsoft.com/event/9a120f9f-48ae-4edf-805a-e0eb1dac863d@9bf97732-82b9-499b-b16a-a93e8ebd536b>

TEXAS
Health and Human Services